

Help wanted on city citizen boards

There are many opportunities for Lewistown residents to donate some time to their community. One of these opportunities is to serve on local government citizen boards and commissions. The city is now recruiting volunteers to fill vacancies on several of its boards and commissions. Most boards meet monthly some meet only as needed.

These local boards and commissions provide important review and input into government decision making. However, they only work well when concerned and fair-minded citizens get involved in the government process. Please consider taking the time to volunteer and applying for appointment to a city board or commission. City openings include:

- A Lewistown resident to serve on the Board of Adjustments.
- A Lewistown resident to serve on the City-County Planning Board/Zoning Commission.
- Lewistown residents to serve on the Housing Advisory Committee.
- A Lewistown resident to serve on the Design Review Board.
- A Lewistown area resident to serve on the Lewistown Historic Resources Commission.
- A Lewistown residents to serve on the Park and Recreation Board.
