

City of Lewistown Study Commission

January 14, 2015

Lewistown Public Library

(First few minutes were not on recording)

Alexandra Dunnington will not be able to attend next meeting due to being out of town.

Open Public Participaton: No comments given.

The Fire Chief will be attending the January 16th meeting.

Secretary: No ads for a recording secretary have been run yet. Charlie Denison has recommended Melody Scott for the secretary position. Krillenberger is awaiting a call from Scott about the position.

Discussion followed on claims for the study commission's expenses and how they have to be processed.

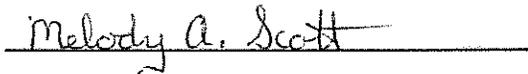

Discussion was held on the length on the meetings, and whether to look at figures from comparable sized cities. Commission then looked over a handout from the Bozeman training of statistics for various towns ranging from 2009-2013.

The subject of the fire chief was brought up again and what questions should be asked of him. Doney recommended coming up with a set of standard questions to ask each department heads. Doney also reminded that the outline of how the commission plans to proceed the next two years needs to be published within ninety days of January 19th. Any revision of the outline will have to be published.

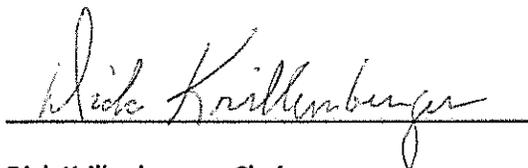

The time and place of the next meeting was announced. A discussion of the February meetings followed. The decision was made to have meeting on February 13th at the Civic Center at 11am and February 23rd at 7pm at the Council of Aging. There will be no meetings on the February 9th and 27th. January 16th will be at the Civic Center at 11am and the January 23rd will be at the Lewistown Public Library at 11am. January 26th will be a public meeting at 7pm at the Council on Aging.

The agenda for the upcoming meetings including who is being interviewed must be turned into Nikki Brummond.

Meeting adjourned.

Melody A. Scott, Recording Secretary

Dick Krillenberger, Chairman
