

Volunteer and Community Service Award

Nominations are being sought by the Lewistown City Commission for our Volunteer and Community Service Award. The award is intended to recognize the volunteer work in our community, schools and service to fellow citizens. These awards are intended to recognize those who perform the good deeds, volunteerism and community service.

Whatever the endeavor, big or small, these people deserve to be recognized and applauded for their efforts. If you know of an individual who would fit these criteria, please complete the nomination form so they may be considered for an award.

Categories

- Exceptional Student Volunteer – This award goes to a student age 19 and under and is intended to recognize the volunteer and community service contributions made by a student in our community. Such an award will recognize the impact this student has made in the lives of others and the example set by this student in our community.
- Exceptional Lewistown Resident – This award recognizes a Lewistown Citizen who has had a major impact in promoting the City of Lewistown. Their pride in our community is apparent and demonstrated by their volunteerism and efforts to make a positive difference in our City. Such an award will recognize not only the community service and volunteerism but the compassion, respect and kindness shown to others and the way they have consistently improved the quality of life in Lewistown.
